LANDSCAPES, CITY SCAPES, STILL-LIFES, JUDAICA, CREATIVE PORTRAITS

Not often does one discover an undeveloped talent later in life, but I did! I am an artist who cannot draw, paint or sketch – the “conventional” way – but my eye for color, balance and composition, along with my love of fine art, has developed into a new profession as an art photographer. By combining my photography, computer and graphic design skills, I turned my hobby into a business – DM Art Photography.

My interest in photography as an art form began twenty years ago when I fell in love with the seasonal beauty of the Aspen trees in Colorado, and wanted to retain those images in photographs. Each of my unique photos begins with the reality of the camera image and becomes a painting with my own creative interpretations. Many of my photographs were shot on my travels to Europe, Israel, China and the U.S. Others are still-lifes from which I created original pieces of modern art.

I also originate work from family photos and portraits that others have taken, such as the collage below, using a photo of my mother in 1942 London.

I collect fine art and objects d'art, love classical music, opera and gardening, am skilled in interior and graphic design and ADORE cats and dogs. See my other website at MyPetImagePhotography.com.
