* ATRIA NORTH POINT ART PICKUP AND HANGING FOR AAG MEMBERS.

AAG Standards, Procedures and More

The Alpha Arts Guild has scheduled the take down of our members' art work at ATRIA

The rules for showing your art work at ATRIA include the following:

1. You must put your name, phone number, price, title, and media on the back of each piece.
2. You may enter two pieces (three, if miniature). The Guild reserves the right to reject art work considered 'inappropriate, "nudes, etc.".
3. Neither ATRIA nor AAG will be responsible for your art's damage or theft.
4. On Tuesday, February 10th, from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm a sign in sheet will be available for you to fill out with your name, phone number, title and price.
5. Any art work not picked up on Tuesday will be put in Carla's (ATRIA Marketing Director) office located next to the front desk. NOTE: ATRIA uses this space, so get your art work this Wednesday!
6. Any questions or comments, call Hubert Jones at (404) 316-1033.

See you Wednesday and hope you will bring your better work to share!

The Drake House Painting Appreciation

For those members that took canvases to paint a 4X4 painting for The Drake House. Please bring your finished canvases to the meeting on February 10. Carol Skowronek will collect the works in preparation for the event.

AAG at Avalon

The 5000 Exhibit Hallway is open on Monday - Friday 6:00-6:00 each day. Please come by and see the exhibit and the space.
