OCTOBER 2009 ALPHA ARTS GUILD UPDATE

Road Trip to the Booth Museum

This Saturday, Oct. 24, 1:30, the Cartersville Booth Museum will be conducting a 'highlight tour' of the facility. This tour has been promoted by the Guild as a 'road trip' for artists and patrons. If you want to participate and would like to carpool, please contact the guild at alphaartsguild@gmail.com and you will be directed to those participants who are willing to carpool (Note: Currently, the 'carpooling' attendees are located in the Alpharetta area). Don't hesitate to join us at the Booth even if it is 'last minute'. Bring a friend, even your long last cousin who just dropped in that day. :) Admission is $10.00, Seniors (65 and over) is $8.00. Student's admission is $7.00. Children 12 and under is $3.00. Active Military with ID is free. Booth Member's admission is free.

Also the town of Cartersville is hosting their annual Southeastern Cowboy Festival and Symposium. This would be a great weekend to share with the entire family! For additional information about the Booth visit www.boothmuseum.org.

DIRECTIONS: ★

I-75 to Exit 288 (Main Street/Cartersville)

Go west on Main Street. Turn right on Gilmer Street.

Booth Museum is 2 blocks on left, follow signs for parking.

AAG Artists Show in East Cobb

The mission of AAG is to promote the arts within the community. In the past, the Guild has hosted a number of very successful 'Saturday Shows' at the Alpharetta Starbucks located on Haynes Bridge and Old Milton. These events are great fun because the artists mingle throughout the day with customers, answering their questions about the displayed art and the Guild. We also encourage our participants to bring their 'art work in progress', so that the general public can observe the process, as the hosting artists work.

It is exciting to announce that on Saturday, November 7th, from 8:30 to 4:30, the Guild will host a show at a new East Cobb location. Six AAG talented artists will participate. The Caribou is located at:

1275 Johnson Ferry Road
Marietta, Ga. 30068
(770) 971-5010

All are invited to visit and support the Guild on Nov. 7th! The coffee house has a very inviting atmosphere! Very cozy...

OLD MASTER'S WORKSHOP

PRESENTED BY

CHRIS DI DOMIZIO

On Saturday, November 14, 2009 from 1:00 - 3:00, the Alpha Arts Guild is proud to host a workshop conducted by internationally trained artist and educator, Chris di Domizio. Chris di Domizio is a national award winning artist whose personal art work resides in prestigious collections across the country. Mr. di Domizio has been teaching for over 20 years and has numerous students who have been featured in national magazines such as American Artists, Wild Life Art, etc. His Old World Art studio is a renowned center of art study.

Through lecture and demonstrations, Chris di Domizio will bring to the workshop his deep understanding of the elements of design, form, and color, medium in harmony. Mr. di Domizio explains "I would like to demonstrate and talk about John Singer Sargent and how Sargent figured out and executed his paintings by using the elements of art to communicate to the viewer his intended message. Today we are all guilty of letting the photograph dictate our decision making and therefore we do not always use the visual tools which the previous old masters had discovered and used to convey a psychological message to the viewer."

To register for the workshop, please e-mail alphaartsguild@gmail.com for further information about enrollment and payment. Enrollment is only done through the Guild!

Admission: $30.00 Non-Members
