Emily Griffith's interest in art started at a young age; in almost every form of media. Her parents encouraged her with art classes from grade school through high school. Having studied Art at Florida Southern College, her career path led her to Los Angeles where she spent several years in the entertainment industry before rediscovering her inner artist. She has studied at The Atlanta Art College, Di Domizio's Old World of Art and the London Art College, where she received a pet portraiture diploma with "Distinction". Her preferred medium is oil and her preferred subject matter is animals. Out of her own love for animals, Emily has the ability to connect with the animal and capture its personality and spirit on canvas.

She has painted several famous dogs, including Actress Tori Spelling's Mimi La Rue, "It's me or the Dog" Trainer/Host Victoria Stilwell's Sadie and Singer Cindy Wilson of the B-52's Pepper. She is an official painter of UGA's mascot Bulldog, Uga VII and Uga VIII.

Emily was voted "Best Animal Artist" for 2010 by Atlanta Magazine and is "The Official Prilosec OTC Animal Artist". Her work can be seen throughout the Atlanta area. Visit her website: www.ehgriffithstudios.com for current shows and galleries.
